

F&M TO HOST OPEN HOUSE AT NEW CAMPBELL STATION OFFICE

SPRING HILL, Tenn. June 7, 2006 – First Farmers & Merchants Bank will host an open house at the Campbell Station office in Spring Hill, on June 16, from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Those attending will meet the staff at F&M’s newest office, as well as enjoy free refreshments.

“We are very excited to expand our presence in Spring Hill, one of the fastest growing communities in the United States,” said J. Mack Allen, F&M’s Williamson County president. “This open house will be a great opportunity for Spring Hill residents to get to know a talented staff that is dedicated to serving this community.”

The Campbell Station office, which specializes in both commercial and residential mortgage loans, offers a variety of loan options allowing the flexibility to closely tailor loans to customers’ needs.

“This new office has allowed F&M to serve more people in Spring Hill and build an even better Spring Hill through residential and commercial loan services,” said Allen. “Not only can customers expect competitive mortgage rates, they can expect to develop a personal relationship with their bank staff, which is something F&M is known for throughout Middle Tennessee.”

The Campbell Station office is located at 2001 Campbell Station Parkway in Spring Hill, Tenn. For more information, call 615-302-4940.

Founded in 1909, First Farmers & Merchants Bank (Member FDIC) is one of the largest independent banks in Tennessee, with total assets over $800 million and an additional $2.5 billion in assets held by its Trust & Financial Management Department. Headquartered in Columbia, the bank operates 19 offices in a seven-county area that includes Maury, Lawrence, Marshall, Hickman, Dickson, Giles and Williamson counties. It is distinguished by its commitment to traditional, personal banking relationships that incorporate state-of-the-art technology to provide the highest possible level of service.

###